

Chapter 21

Title Traps

Sean Cassidy

Sean Cassidy and Associates, P.C.

Greensburg, Pennsylvania

Synopsis

§ 21.01.	Introduction	813
§ 21.02.	Trap No. 1: Property Descriptions – Reliance on Recitals	814
§ 21.03.	Trap No. 2: Race-Notice . . . Head Start in the Race	818
§ 21.04.	Trap No. 3: Heirship Interests — Tenancy by the Entireties	819
§ 21.05.	Trap No. 4: Unseated Tax Sales	820
§ 21.06.	Trap No. 5: Marriage Subsequent to Co-Tenancy	820
§ 21.07.	Trap No. 6: Effect of Divorce on Tenancy by the Entireties	821
§ 21.08.	Trap No. 7: Exception and Reservation of Oil and Gas in a Conveyance of a Portion of a Larger Tract	822
§ 21.09.	Trap No. 8: Reacquisition of an Heirship Interest	823
§ 21.10.	Trap No. 9: Hidden Reservations	823
§ 21.11.	Trap No. 10: Idem Sonans Quandary	824
§ 21.12.	Trap No. 11: “Boilerplate” Exception and Reservation	825
§ 21.13.	Trap No. 12: The Sherwood Dilemma	827
§ 21.14.	Trap No. 13: Re-recorded and Corrective Deeds	829
§ 21.15.	Trap No. 14: Wills and Estates	830
§ 21.16.	Trap No. 15: Reliance on Tax Maps	831
§ 21.17.	Trap No. 16: Incorporation of Unrecorded Matters Recited in Deeds	831
§ 21.18.	Trap No. 17: Condemnation Proceedings	833
§ 21.19.	Trap No. 18: In Pennsylvania, Oil and Gas Is Not a “Mineral”	834

§ 21.01. Introduction.

There are numerous traps in title examinations that can create problems for the unsuspecting abstractor or title attorney. This chapter presents a review of some of the more common title traps in order that the title searcher or attorney may be aware of problems lurking in the title chain, which could otherwise be overlooked.