

Energy & Mineral Law Foundation
2017 Annual Institute
Speaker Release

As a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt, non-profit educational organization, the EMLF wishes to disseminate your written materials and taped presentation as widely as possible.

In order to include your presentation from the 2017 Annual Institute in the program database for sale on the EMLF website, the following release is needed:

I grant to the Energy & Mineral Law Foundation, a co-exclusive, perpetual, worldwide license to use, copy, publicly display, broadcast and distribute the materials and presentation of the materials in any form or format, including without limitation, through the Internet, intranets, USB drives, DVD, and any other technologies whether now known or developed in the future, and represent that I have developed and own, or have rights to the materials and have authority to grant the license herein.

Please acknowledge your agreement by signing below and returning this release to the Energy & Mineral Law Foundation, 340 South Broadway, Suite 101, Lexington, KY 40508. You may email this document to carolyn@emlf.org or Sharon@emlf.org or fax it to EMLF at 859.226.0485.

By signing below, I agree to the grant of license and the other terms set forth above.
